MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Residential Telephone Calls

1. On Saturday evening while I was home having dinner the telephone rang. A lady's voice told me she was [REDACTED] She said that she had special powers of communication with God; that God had told her that all political prisoners must be released whether in this country, the free world or elsewhere; and that all of us who were responsible for not releasing them would be subject to God's vengeance. She told me this was the message from God which she had received. I thanked her for her message and hung up.

2. Three times over this weekend I answered my commercial telephone only to find that the person at the other end had hung up before I had picked up or simultaneously as I did. One was at six o'clock in the morning on Saturday; one at ten o'clock at night on Saturday; and one was at 5:15 in the afternoon on Sunday.
